Criteria: A B XC D Considerations: A B C D E F G None

Justification for decision: (Use continuation sheet if necessary and attach map)

This property was determined eligible for the NR by MHT letter dated 4/27/1994.

" This property is significant under Criterion C for architecture. Retention of the bake oven makes this well preserved, but relatively common, mid to late nineteenth century house significant. Bake ovens do not survive in large numbers and this one, together with the house is representative of the domestic aspects of farm life "

SWISSDALE FARM

19th century

Westminster vicinity

private

Swissdale Farm is located at 105 Bell Road in the Westminster vicinity and consists of a late nineteenth century farmhouse and several outbuildings. The brick house is built in the representative regional farmhouse style with a five-bay, two-story, main facade and an L-shape plan. Oral tradition states that the structure was built about 1888. There was once a barn located south of the house which contained an 1888 date painted at a gable end. The house was in the Early family and was built for one daughter's inheritance. Also on the property at the rear of the house is a free-standing beehive bake oven with a gable roof and a smokehouse.
